Prokofiev's powerful score to Romeo and Juliet evokes the drama and tenderness of Shakespeare's famous tragic love story. Brilliantly orchestrated, this lively collection of pieces sparks the imagination as the epic play is brought to life through music. Along the way we explore together the music's structure, captivating rhythms and melodies, colorful symphonic textures, and informative tie-ins with literature, history, and mathematics.

With Maestro Peter Jaffe as conductor and host, the Stockton Symphony's Steppin' Out series has provided highly educational and entertaining programs to enthusiastic young audiences for over two decades. Many thanks for your participation—and make sure to reserve space for your students soon!
